
Airport Transfer

Your journey to the airport at the commencement of your holiday or business trip doesn't have to be a fraught affair.

It can be enough with concern over flights. Why worry about getting to the airport? Think of the advantages:

- reduction of the stress of making your way through traffic
- you can conduct business or chat to friends on the way
- make sure you get to the airport on time for your flight
- visitors get picked up after what may have been a long flight and can be taken directly to your home, workplace or arranged accommodation
- no airport parking charges to pay while you're away!

What to do with your car, airport parking is notoriously expensive and once you have parked then you have all the hassle of getting your baggage to the terminal.

Travel Safe Bus Hire can take all the problems of parking and carrying luggage out of the equation. We can transport you and your party safely and in time to catch your flight comfortably.

You do not have to know your way or where to go in the terminal, we will deliver you and your luggage to exactly the right spot. Our modern fleet is capable of handling from 9 to 61 passengers, and if your group is larger then multiple vehicles are available to suit your exact needs.

Our friendly drivers will be exactly at the right place at exactly the right time to greet you. Once collected our passengers are then transported in comfort and safety to their final destination as quickly as possible, by drivers who know Budapest intimately. Should you wish group transportation for the rest of your stay then we are happy to oblige, simply let us know and we will do the rest.
